

2025-02-26

The Royal Tennis Club of Stockholm, February 22 to March 2, 2025

“An exciting Thursday awaits!”

For the first time since 2019, we have both a Swedish girl and boy advancing to the third round of the tournament.

KLTK member Grace Bernstein, who trains at Good to Great, and Melker Andersson from Ystads TK showcased their strong form by securing straight-set victories. Afterward, both players expressed their joy at playing on home turf and their satisfaction with their performances. “I’m enjoying every match and looking forward to tomorrow,” said Melker with a smile.

The day also brought surprises on the boys’ side, where we saw two Italians — Paolo Carroccio, who advanced as a Lucky Loser, and qualifier Edoardo Ghiselli — impress with solid play and strong determination.

In addition to the intense singles and doubles matches, the day wrapped up with the much-anticipated Players Party. The players enjoyed a relaxed evening with tacos, laughter, and tricky magician riddles — a perfect way to unwind before Thursday’s important matches.

We now look forward to an exciting Thursday, when we will find out which players will reach the singles quarterfinals and join the prestigious “Last Eight Club.” Thursday’s matches start at 10:30 AM!

For more information, contact Joe Beaton (Tournament Director) 0767-143 768.

Kungens Kanna & Drottningens Pris, which is a joint arrangement between the Swedish Tennis Association and the Royal Lawn Tennis Club of Stockholm, will be played February 22 to March 2, 2025 at the Royal Tennis Hall. Our partners make this event happen. Presenting Partner are Elite Hotels. Main Partners are BNP Paribas, Eurocard, Audi, Tempest Security, PE Alliance and G&W.